The Lot You Would Buy

out in PRINCETON HEIGHTS, if you knew about it, or could see it, will belong to someone else in a day or two if you don't hurry. At the rate PRINCETON HEIGHTS is selling we won't have a thing to show you very long. There are only two or three of the $325 and $350 lots left and only two of the big ones at $550. You see there hasn't been anything quite so attractive as PRINCETON HEIGHTS put on the market in a long time. Desirable location, city water, electricity, caliche roads, etc. And, then, such easy terms, only $25 down and ten a month, and no interest and no taxes. Anyone who really wants a homesite in a moderately restricted district, usually buys a lot in PRINCETON HEIGHTS as soon as they see it and compare it with other propositions. That's why so many lots were sold as soon as the subdivision was opened.

PHOENIX A. C. STAGES SHORT BOUTS TONIGHT

Local Organization Will Pull Off First of Its New Order Exhibitions at Hall at 230 East Washington.

The first of a series of refined boxing exhibitions will be held at the club rooms of the Phoenix A. C. tonight, being open to members only. The card of bouts is not a long one, but there is exception interest attached to several of the numbers. No "vaudeville" will be attempted.

The main go between Mat Brock and Dan Matthews at the lightweight limit, and for ten spaces Brock and Matthews are two fighters with a single peculiarity, and that is they both have the training habit. It is said that they train in their sleep, though that is a little hard to understand. If they really train in their sleep they would have to sleep very well, while if they only go through the motions of punching and sleeping they would have to sleep very good repose. Brock claims consanguinity with Phil of the same name, and is a worthy kid brother to the famous glove artist.

There are two preliminary bouts between well known local ringsters—all white boys. Bud Anderson, well known in Phoenix as a wrestler and an automobilist will take on Ben Lyons, formerly lightweight champion of Kansas, a lad who is perhaps heavier than himself. The training bug has hit these two also, and they are therefore well prepared to put up a stiff match. The grapplers will be referred by a man who is yet to be chosen, while Bill Thompson holds the rule book on the boxers.

EXACTLY

The morning class had been duly instructed and enlightened upon the subject of our national independence. Feeling sure she had made a real and lasting impression with her explanations and blackboard illustrations, the young teacher began with the usual round of questions.

"Now, Sammy Smith, where was the Declaration of Independence signed?"

Sammy, with a shout of glee: "At the bottom, ma'am—that's what you said?"—Ladies' Home Journal.

PHOENIX TEAM BREAKS RECORD

In a series that total more than ever has been rolled on a local alley the Phoenix Laundry last night whaled the league leading pennant clinching, Valley Clothing Company team of the Salt River Valley Bowling league. With such scores as 224, 225 and 219 to help, it was no trouble to the valley shooters to roll up a preliminary total of 962. The Valley didn't drop once below the 830 mark but failed to reach that height of pure peg killing that gave the right to call victory their own.

The scores:
Phoenix Laundry
Player 1st 2nd 3rd
Good 225 189 185
Godfrey 220 181 122
Linn 224 167 196
Williams 159 174 219
Max 169 232 179

BILLS INTRODUCED YESTERDAY IN HOUSE

House Gets Busy, Introduced Big Bunch of Bills and Approves of Fifteen.

The house of representatives yesterday morning introduced twenty-one measures, all of which were left over from the last session. In the afternoon they held a session of the committee of the whole and out of the twenty-one measures introduced in the morning approved of fifteen of them and these fifteen were sent to the committee on style, revision and compilation for preparation for final passage.

A full list of the bills introduced yesterday morning under their new numbers, together with the former number of the bill is herewith published.

H. B. No. 1 by the committee on code revision, an act to establish a penal code.

H. B. No. 2 by the committee on code revision, an act to prescribe the fees to be charged and collected by state, county and precinct officers, and to provide for the payment thereof into the state or county treasury, to fix the salaries and compensation of state officers, and to classify the several counties of the state and fix and prescribe the salaries and compensation of the several county and precinct officers. Formerly H. B. 99.

H. B. No. 3 by the committee on code revision, an act regulating express companies, and providing for a state tax on the same and for the collection thereof. Formerly H. B. 163.

H. B. No. 4 by the committee on code revision, an act to provide for the assessment of taxes on the property of telegraph and telephone companies; requiring annual reports, and providing a penalty for neglect or refusal to make the same; and providing the duties of the state board of equalization in relation to said assessment of taxes on said property of telegraph and telephone companies. House bill 116 in recent session.

H. B. No. 5 by the committee on code revision, an act providing for the taxing of gifts, legacies and inheritances, and for the collection of such taxes. House bill 108 in last session.

H. B. No. 6 by the committee on code revision, an act to prescribe the boundaries of the several counties in this state, and the mode of government thereof, and the management and conduct of the affairs of the several counties, and to define the legal charges and expenses of such counties to prescribe the duties and powers of the several county officers, to provide for the division of counties into justice precincts, and to prescribe the powers and duties of precinct officers. This bill was numbered 117 on the house calendar in the last session.

H. B. No. 7 by the committee on code revision, an act to provide for the appointment of commissioners for the promotion of uniformity of legislation in the United States. Formerly H. B. 118.

H. B. No. 8 by the committee on code revision, an act making judgments for the recovery of money liens upon the real property of the judgment debtors, and providing liens for mechanics, laborers and others, for materials furnished or labor performed, for liens upon domestic vessels, and liens upon personal property in certain cases. Formerly H. B. 106.

H. B. No. 9 by the committee on code revision, an act to provide for the establishment of land marks, and the survey of the lands for that purpose, and to prescribe penalty for the violation hereof. Formerly H. B. 121.

H. B. No. 10 by the committee on code revision, an act to define the rights of principal and sureties and the remedies of sureties. H. B. 120 during last session.

H. B. No. 11 by the committee on code revision, an act to provide for the taking of private property for public uses, for taking possession of such property and the practice and procedure in condemnation proceedings, and to regulate the exercise of eminent domain. H. B. 121 during last session.

H. B. No. 12 by the committee on code revision, an act to establish a seat of government to classify the several officers of the state, to prescribe their duties and powers and their qualification, and the oath, bond and term of appointment or election of such officers, to prescribe the manner of resigning and filling vacancies in state offices, the recovery of money illegally paid by state officer, and the compensation of officers whose title is contested. H. B. 100 in recent session.

H. B. No. 13 by the committee on code revision, an act to prevent the manufacture, sale or transportation of adulterated, mislabeled, or misbranded foods and liquors, and regulating the tariff therein, providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act, establishing a state laboratory for the analysis of foods, potable waters, liquors, and drugs, and making an appropriation for the maintenance of such laboratory. Formerly H. B. 116.

H. B. No. 14 by the committee on code revision, an act to provide for the registration of births and deaths and the issuance of burial and removal permits, and the registration of vital statistics throughout the state. H. B. 115 in the last session.

H. B. No. 15 by the committee on code revision, an act to regulate marriage, issuance of marriage licenses, the celebration of marriages, the divorce and annulment of marriages, separation from bed and board, and the separate maintenance of a wife and minor children. H. B. 87 in last session.

H. B. No. 16 by the committee on code revision, an act to provide for the establishment of a state board of health and county and city boards of health and prescribing the powers and duties of said boards. H. B. 114 in last session.

H. B. No. 17 by the committee on code revision, an act to provide for holding general and special elections, the time of holding the same and manner of conducting the same and canvassing and returning the votes cast at such elections, the holding of primary elections and the manner of conducting the same and the canvassing and returning the votes cast at such primary elections, the contesting of elections and the practice and procedure upon election contests and the filing of statements of election expenses by committees and candidates for elective offices. H. B. 11 in last session.

H. B. No. 18 by Mr. Babbitt of Maricopa, an act providing for the levy and collection of taxes.

H. B. No. 19 by Mr. Babbitt of Maricopa, an act granting specific powers to the state tax commission over assessment and taxation. This bill and No. 18 were known as S. S. B. 3 last session.

H. B. No. 20 by Mr. Babbitt of Maricopa, an act amending chapter 31, first regular session of the legislature of Arizona entitled, "An act creating a state board of equalization, prescribing its powers and duties and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of this act." This bill was S. S. B. 22 last session.

H. B. No. 21 by Mr. Graham of Cochise, an act to provide for the taxation of mines and mining claims and the ores or mineral products from the same, and the improvements thereon and used in connection therewith. This bill is identical with H. B. 113 of the last session.

It will be noticed that three of these bills were formerly senate bills, at least the subjects contained in the bills were dealt with in bills under the senate calendar at the former session. These are the tax commission measures and the revenue bill providing for the levy and collection of taxes. It will be noticed that Mr. Babbitt of Maricopa county, chairman of the house committee on appropriation, has stolen a march on the senate in the matter of the first introduction of these measures; however, a reference to the record of the senate will show that the upper house proceeded to more than get even during the afternoon session.

CAMPBELL SHOWS DID NOT DISCRIMINATE

Campbell's show exhibited to hundreds of people last night. Too much praise could not be said of this splendid fresh-air family resort. There was no discriminating from all comers, as the licenses were granted and all the compliances of law fulfilled by the Campbell company of clean boosters. While some of the show people who show three hundred and sixty-five days in the year have put in the biggest part of a week insisting that outside amusements be kept out of Arizona, it did no good, as the people recognize that Phoenix has gotten beyond the village size and will turn a deaf ear to such actions.

It is evident the carnival company was welcomed by Phoenix's best people, as the crowds were there last night, and will be there again tonight, regardless of what the knockers may try to bring.

J. R. Brought, proprietor of the Savoy, is giving one night of his show to his people to visit the great Campbell shows. Given a few more Dad Broughts, a substantial booster from a money and humanity standpoint, who has made his money and is spending it for greater Phoenix, and things would go along better.
